General characteristics of EP HE

1.1. Purpose (mission) of EP VO.

The purpose of the Master's degree program in the field of training 41.04.05 "International Relations" is to develop students' personal qualities, as well as to provide comprehensive and high-quality training of competitive, highly qualified specialists capable of creatively solving theoretical and practical problems of professional activity in modern conditions based on the development of skills, abilities and competencies in accordance with the requirements of the Basic Educational Institution of Higher Education of RUDN University for this purpose. training required by a future specialist in combination with the requirements of advanced innovative technologies.

1.2. Basic Information.

Training within the framework of this PLO is carried out in full-time form.

The scope of the Master's program is 120 credits.

The period of education under the Master's program in the field of full-time training, including vacations provided after passing the state final certification, regardless of the educational technologies used, is 2 years.

The volume of the full-time Master's degree program implemented in one academic year is 60 CPU.

During the implementation of the program, students prepare for expert and analytical activities.

The Master's program is taught in English.

The subject field is government departments, federal and regional authorities and administrations, international organizations, analytical departments of business community structures and state corporations, commercial, non-profit and public organizations of international profile that carry out consulting, information, expert and analytical, research and lobbying activities, scientific, departmental and non-governmental analytical organizations and structures with international issues, mass media, areas of professional training related to the teaching of disciplines (modules) of international profile and foreign languages at all levels of education.

The main place of implementation of the program is the Department of Theory and History of International Relations.

1.3. Specifics of the implementation of the EP HE.

The program is implemented entirely in English. The key feature of the PLO is that it is based on the principle of interdisciplinarity, which makes it possible to analyze various aspects of international relations. Each of the teaching staff implementing the PLO has its own regional specialization, possessing knowledge of the history and culture, ethno-confessional and political situation, foreign policy and diplomacy of the countries of one of the regions of the world (Europe, North America, the Far East, the Middle East, Africa, Latin America) in accordance with the foreign language they speak. In addition, each of the lecturers specializes in one of the aspects of international cooperation (security, diplomacy, integration, etc.), being one of the leading experts in their field in Russia. Another important feature of the implementation of the PLO is the active participation in the training process of practitioners from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, the Federal Agency for CIS Affairs, compatriots living abroad, and international humanitarian cooperation (Rossotrudnichestvo), other federal ministries and departments, leading professors and researchers of the Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, MGIMO University, and the Institute of Far Eastern Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences.

The Master's program includes situational analytical workshops in the study of modern international relations, international security, economic and political processes in the CIS, and international conflicts.

In the course of the implementation of the PLO, e-learning and distance learning technologies are used. Individual disciplines of the OOP are implemented in English.

1.4. The demand of the labor market for graduates of this EP HE.

According to the professional purpose and qualification characteristics, the activity of the Master of International Relations is aimed at analyzing events and phenomena in the system of international relations, international organizations and associations, problems and trends in the development of world politics, issues of international and national security, foreign policy of the Russian Federation and other states. The Master's activity in the field of international relations provides for the performance of the functions of analysts and strategists, employees who develop and make decisions within their competence, analysts and researchers, teachers and managers of various levels, a translator-assistant in the relevant foreign language when working in government agencies, state and non-state organizations, scientific and educational institutions of the Russian Federation, in the funds of the mass media - as observers and analysts, referent in this field.

An analysis of the employment of graduates in the OOP shows that the overwhelming majority of students of the department are successfully employed upon graduation. The main professions in which graduates of the department work are: diplomat, international expert, analyst, international journalist, lawyer, economist, manager. As for the positions held, the range is quite wide: from a bank teller to the first secretary of the embassy and an employee of the Presidential Administration of the Russian Federation.

Graduates of the department get jobs and successfully work in the central office of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, in embassies and consulates of the Russian Federation in the USA, Germany, Belgium, Denmark, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Romania, China, Egypt, Syria, Sudan, Lebanon, Morocco and in other countries, in diplomatic missions of a number of foreign countries, in international organizations, in commercial structures, research centers, higher educational institutions of the Russian Federation and foreign countries.

Our graduates show themselves to be quite competitive in the labor market. This is evidenced by the feedback from employers and the fact that when applying for a job, graduates of the department successfully pass repeated tests for professional aptitude, including in a foreign language.

1.5. Admission Requirements.

The applicant must have a state-recognized document on higher education (at the bachelor's/specialist's level), if it contains a record of the bearer's receipt of higher education (at the bachelor's/specialist's level) or an equivalent document of a foreign country, as well as successfully pass the entrance test.
