PROGRAM OF DISCIPLINE

Russian as a foreign language (Name of the Discipline / Module)

Recommended for the direction of training / specialty:

42.03.02 Journalism

(Code and Name of the field of study, direction of training / specialty)

The discipline is carried out within the framework of the main professional educational program of higher education (EP HE):

Multimedia Journalism

(Name of the educational program)

2022 г.

1. OBJECTIVE OF THE DISCIPLINE

The main goal of the discipline "Russian as a foreign language" is to provide a solid foundation in the Russian language and to impart an understanding of the cultural history of Russia in its global contexts, to acquaint students with the Russian language system for communication in the Russian speaking environment, as well as with the language of the speciality necessary for education at university.

The main objectives are:

- to read and to understand unabridged literary, journalistic, and colloquial Russian texts with the aid of a dictionary and to comprehend a wide range of audio-visual texts;
- to converse and to communicate in writing with Russian speakers on a variety of nontechnical topics;
- to navigate and to negotiate the Russian Internet, as well as journalism and media in Russian;
- to function independently in a Russian-speaking environment;
- to demonstrate a broad understanding of the people, movements, and events shaping Russian cultural history;
- to demonstrate familiarity with representative works of Russian literature, fine arts, music, and performance;
- to demonstrate cultural competence in Russian, including historical, political, social, and aesthetic awareness.
