7. METHODS AND CONTENTS OF RESEARCH WORK

The research work of "Master's Research Work" can be carried out both in the structural divisions of the RUDN or in organizations in Moscow (stationary) and outside Moscow.

The terms of the research work correspond to the period specified in the study calendar of the International Marketing program. The terms of the research work can be adjusted in coordination with the appropriate orders by the RUDN University management.

Most of the research work is dedicated to developing information gathering, analytics and report-drafting skills through designing and writing papers, and participating in appropriate events.

The 1st semester research work is largely dedicated to information gathering and processing activities, while 2nd and 3rd semesters are aimed at research papers writing and publishing (both individually and in groups).

The supervisors can advise and grade student's research work, but the responsibility to perform the work and its quality is on the student. In case of the 3rd semester research paper the students can offer the supervisor to edit the paper for increased publication potential. If the supervisor agrees, he can become the co-author of the paper.

In the end of each semester within academic year (20th December for 1st semester and 20th May of 2nd semester) the student has to submit the R&D report to the supervisor, and upon his approval upload the report to the associated course page in TUIS system.
